

Religious Diversity Seminar

Saturday, February, 25, 2012

9:00AM – 3:00 PM

By

James L. Setser ,Lay Leader
St Paul United Methodist Church
Marietta, Georgia

“A study of the five major world religions, Christian denominations, and alternative movements (cults).”

Join us as Jim Setser presents an enlightening six hour seminar on religious diversity. The seminar is open to those of all faith traditions and there is no cost to participants. Lunch will be provided as well as a copy of the text on a Microsoft Word format CD.

As Christians, we are called upon to reach out with love and respect to everyone of God's creation. It is incumbent on us to seek the highest quality relationship possible with others of different faith. It is through our understanding of what others believe that we are able to mature in our own faith and contribute to raising relationships with others to the level that God intends.

No matter what your faith tradition, you are sure to come away from the seminar with a deep sense of appreciation for it, as well as for the faith of others.

The seminar will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the St Paul UMC Education Building, located off the back parking lot at 244 Kurtz Road, Marietta, Ga. 30066. St. Paul UMC is located off Bells Ferry Road, about half way between Cobb Parkway and Barrett Parkway.

Please call (770) 427- 5479 or the Church Office at (770) 422-1089 to register for the seminar. Participants can also register by e-mail at lowellsetser@aol.com.
